Numb. 736. THE

So^th.-Carolina GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

From MONDAY May 16th, to WEDNESDAY May 25th, 1748.

LONDON, February 25.

SEVERAL Pruſſian Officers having requeſted Leave of the King their Maſter, to make the Campaign, in Quality of Volunteers, in the French Army under M. Saxe, his Pruſſian Majeſty has again conſented, as he did the laſt Year. Others have aſked the ſame Liberty to go into the Armies in Italy; which has alſo been granted. And hence there is good Ground to conjecture, that this Monarch does not yet intend to intermeddle with the Quarrels of Europe.

By an authentick Letter from Holland, we are inform'd, that the following are the Articles for a General Peace, to be agreed upon at Aix-la-Chapelle, viz.

1. The Conqueſts made by France in the Auſtrian Netherlands ſhall be reſtored.——Whether the Meaning of this Article is, that they ſhall be given back to her Imperial Majeſty, or put under the Government of Prince Charles of Lorrain, is not determined.

2. The Republick of the United Provinces ſhall have a new Barrier, and ſhall be at Liberty to fortify it as they think fit.— It is ſaid the Towns that are to compoſe this Barrier are agreed upon, and will be ſpecified at the Conferences.

3. The Treaty of Commerce between the French King and the Republick, at preſent ſuſpended by the former, ſhall be re-eſtabliſhed agreeable to the Treaty of Utrecht.—This Article, it is ſaid, will be more clearly explained in the Conferences.

4. Satisfaction ſhall be given to his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, in Reference to the Equivalent demanded for his Conqueſts.

5. An Equivalent, if poſſible, ſhall be thought of for Cape-Breton. It is ſurmiſed that this Equivalent will conſiſt in an Amendment of certain Particulars in the Treaty of Utrecht, to the Advantage of the Britiſh Nation.

6. All the Diſputes between Spain and Great Britain ſhall be clearly decided, to the mutual Satisfaction of both Courts, ſo as to prevent any Diſputes either in Europe or the Weſt-Indies.

7. A reaſonable Satisfaction ſhall be given to his Catholick Majeſty, for reſtoring the Dutchy of Savoy and the County of Nice, and an explicite Renunciation of all his Pretenſions in Italy.

8. The Ceſſions made to his Sardinian Majeſty ſhall be confirmed to him, as alſo the quiet Poſſeſſion of the Marquiſate of Final, and the City of that Name ſhall be made a free Port, in the ſame Manner as Leghorn is at preſent, and ſhall perpetually remain ſo for the common Benefit of the Powers of Europe.

9. An Equivalent ſhall be given to the Republick of Genoa, for the Ceſſion of that Marquiſate.

10. The Duke of Modena ſhall be reſtored to his Dominions, and be allowed to accept of an Equivalent for any Part of them if he ſhall think proper.

There ſhall be an Article of general Guaranty inſerted in the Definitive Treaty, whereby all the contracting Powers ſhall mutually charge themſelves with the Maintenance of the Conditions, Equivalents, Ceſſions, &c. ſettled thereby; as alſo of the Rights, Titles, and Territories, in the actual Poſſeſſion of each of the ſaid contracting Powers, with ſuch other Stipulations as ſhall appear requiſite for eſtabliſhing and maintaning the general Tranquillity and Security of Chriſtendom.

The Treaty of Alliance concluded between the Kings of Pruſſia and Sweden conſiſts of nine Articles, and engages the two Powers to furniſh reciprocal Aſſiſtance, if either of them ſhould be attacked by any Power whatever. The Empreſs of Ruſſia is to be invited to join in this Treaty, as ſtipulated by one of the Articles.

Private Letters from the different Ports of France mention the Opinion they have in general conceived of an approaching Peace: But at the ſame Time hint, that the Reaſon of their King's Pacifick Diſpoſition is only owing to the bad Condition of his Marine, at which he is greatly exaſperated, and as they ſay, ſeems determin'd to augment it to the utmoſt of their Power; for which Purpoſe proper Perſons are already appointed to go abroad to the ſeveral Countries, where Naval Stores are to be purchas'd. From whence 'tis natural to conclude, that they intend to make a Peace with their Uſual Integrity.

The Inſtructions for the Dutch Plenipotentiaries at Aix-la-Chapelle are ſaid to be ready, and to be calculated as well for the Benefit of her Allies, as the Republick herſelf. In regard to the latter, they demand, 1. Security for her Frontiers by a new Diſpoſition, to repair the Loſs of her late Barrier. 2. The Re-eſtabliſhment of Navigation and Commerce upon the Footing of the Treaty of Utrecht. 3. The Confirmation of Treaties poſterior and relative to that of Utrecht, as well in both the Indies as in Europe. 4. A ſolemn and reciprocal Guarantee of all that may be ſtipulated in the future Treaty. The Reſtitution of Dutch Flanders and Bergen-op-Zoom is to be one of the principal Articles upon which an Armiſtice will be admited.

There is much Inſurance made upon the twenty Spaniſh Ships that lie in Cadiz Bay, bound to La Vera Cruz, which was done at 40 per Cent.

LONDON, March 2.

The laſt Letters from Ratiſbon mention the Commiſſorial Decree of his Imperial Majeſty, in Reference to the March of the Ruſſian Auxiliaries, as a thing daily expected, and which it is believed will occaſion a great Struggle in the Dyet, through it is already well known that the moſt diſtinguiſhed Patriots in Germany have already inſtructed their Miniſters to vote for, and to ſupport it. Opinion however prevails, that this Affair will not be brought upon the Carpet, until there is a moral Certainty that the Courts of Berlin and Dreſden will approve this Meaſure, or at leaſt will not oppoſe it; and it is alſo ſaid, that there is a Deſign on Foot for engaging another Elector to be paſſive in this Buſineſs; though at the ſame Time there want not many ſhrewd Politicians who ſuſpect that Things may yet take another Turn; and that the Ruſſians may find a Paſſage through the Empire with as little Obſtruction as they are like to meet with, in traverſing the Kingdom of Poland. But this ſeems to ſtand in need not of Confirmation only, but of Explanation alſo.

Yeſterday there was a great many idle and ridiculous Reports ſpread about the Town, which we ſuppoſe were calculated and hatched in a certain Place, in order to anſwer ſome private Purpoſes; we look upon the Whole to be without the leaſt Foundation.

LONDON, March 3.

The Reports that have been for ſome Days current, in relation to Diſturbances in a Neighbouring Country, are believed to have had their Riſe from ſome private Letters, relating to a certain General's pretending to juſtify his Conduct by Orders which was ſaid to have irritated the Populace highly, as it very well might: but we can hardly ſuppoſe they would proceed to any Acts of Violence, unleſs ſome ſuch Papers were produced; and as the Fact is in itſelf very improbable, ſo the receiving any certain Intelligence about it is hardly poſſible. But thoſe who want Articles of News, of a certain Complexion, never want Ingenuity enough to coin, or Emiſſaries enough to put them off.

It is reported, that for the more effectual Cultivating of the Country, and more ſpeedily civilizing the Inhabitants, in the Highlands of Scotland, his Majeſty will be enabled by Law, to purchaſe Lands in that Country, to be leaſed out to, and ſettled by, an active, induſtrious, and well principled People, who are to hold immediately from the Crown; and that ſuch other Expedients will be uſed, as ſeems beſt calculated to preſerve the Tranquility, improve the Lands, and encourage the Trade of this Part of the United Kingdom.

Kingdom. It is alſo ſaid, that the better to prevent Perſons committed for High Treaſon, and other Crimes of an extraordinary Nature, from eſcaping, the Forts that are already erected, or which may be hereafter erected, will be declared County Goals.
